

Look at the following pictures that show you Arturo's day and write a story with a clear opening, middle and closing. You may want to include descriptions of background activities. Use a variety of verbs and vocabulary. Sentences containing other languages will not be counted. You have 20 minutes in which to write your story.

